Thinking about a career in teaching?

Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire!

Lowell Public Schools is looking for Lowell residents who aspire to become teachers.

Have you thought about a career in teaching? The Lowell Public Schools is looking to support Lowell residents interested in becoming a teacher and joining the Lowell school district community.

What do I need in order to become a licensed teacher in Massachusetts? The MA Department of Elementary and Secondary (DESE) requires an individual to have a Bachelor's Degree or higher and passed all required MTEL tests.

How is the Lowell Public Schools going to help me become a teacher? The Lowell Public Schools is offering a workshop to help those who are interested in a teaching career in Lowell prepare for the Communication and Literacy MTEL, which is one of the required MTEL tests.

Who is eligible for this Communication and Literacy MTEL workshop?

- Lowell resident
- Possession of a Bachelor's Degree or higher
- Proficient in reading and writing in English
- Basic computer skills
- Passion for teaching

Where may I learn more about this opportunity? The Lowell Public Schools will be holding informational sessions as follows:

Thursday, April 25th, Stoklosa Middle School, 2:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Thursday, May 2nd, Butler Middle School, 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.
