

Questions You Might Ask your Children During and After Reading Aloud

Grade 1 Students

1. Take a sneak peek...look book's title, cover, back blurb, and chapter titles. Try to figure out who is in the story and what might happen. Ask yourself, "What big problem might the character face?"

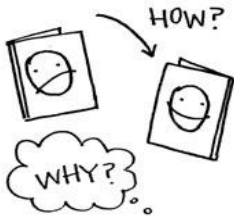

2. Think about what you know about the character and the story. Try to imagine what might come next, and make a prediction.

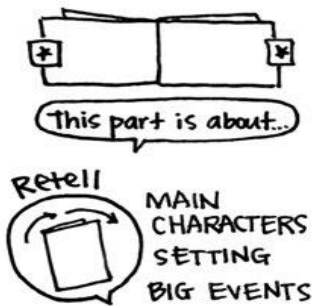

3. What kind of person is my character?

4. How is my character changing in the story?

5. Retell your story by saying something about the characters, setting, problem and the solution. Retell across your fingers.

6. What is the lesson in my story? What am I supposed to learn?
