Kindergarten ELA Week 12

All previous activities, as well as other resources can be found on the Lowell Public Schools website: https://www.lowell.k12.ma.us/Page/3805

This week completes a focus on fiction reading and narrative writing. Your child should be reading, writing, talking and writing about reading, and working on their vowel sounds in cvc words this week.

Reading: Students need to read each day. They can read the texts included in this packet and/or read any of the fiction or story books that they have at home, or can access online at Epic Books, Tumblebooks, Raz Kids, or other online books. All resources are on the LPS website. There is something for everyone.

Talking and Writing about Reading: As students are reading, they can think about their reading and get ready for summer. Students can also reflect back on the school year and write a bit about what they liked or learned.

Writing: Students will be finish working on narrative stories. These resources are charts with examples to help your child write. They are available online in an interactive form with video tutorials here: Kindergarten Narrative Writing Choice Board. This writing should be finished this week. Students will be planning writing, then making it even better by revising, writing some more, and at the end, fixing it up by editing.

Phonics/Word Work: Students can review all short vowel sounds that they have learned: a, e, i, o, and u. Students will practice matching and sorting the sounds in cvc words like dog, mat, sun. These are words that start and end with a consonant and have a short vowel sound in the middle. You can also always review the high frequency words that students should know by the end of the year.
My Summer Reading Plan

Books/Authors I want to read:

___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________

Where I will get books:

☐ Borrow from the library    ☐ Read online    ☐ Trade books with friends
☐ Buy at a bookstore         ☐ Buy Online    ☐ Other ____________

Where I will read:

☐ In my bedroom    ☐ In the living room    ☐ Outside
☐ In my car        ☐ At the beach        ☐ Other ____________

Log all of the books that you read. If you read 1 book, write it down. If you read 100, write them down. You can write them here. If you run out of room, add another piece of paper.

OR

Looking for an even easier way to log your books, do it online. Click here to enter your book titles online. Your school will keep a list of all of the books that you read.

Remember, you only need to log your books on paper or online. NOT BOTH!

Happy Summer Reading!
The summer sun feels so good
Shining on my skin.
It warms me right down to the bone,
From the outside in.

My skin drinks up the sun rays.
I turn a golden tan.
I never even noticed
When the red sunburn began.

Now my skin is flaming hot
And it hurts to even touch.
Next time I’ll put on sunscreen
Because this hurts too much!

Sunburn

My skin drinks up the sun rays.
I turn a golden tan.

It warms me right down to the bone,
From the outside in.

Now my skin is flaming hot
And it hurts to even touch.

I never even noticed
When the red sunburn began.

Planning Stories Across Pages

Writers plan how stories will go.
Telling Stories Across Pages

These words can help you tell your story:
First … Next … Then… After that
In the beginning … In the middle … In the end.

You can practice telling your story across your fingers or you can touch each page as you tell part of the story.

Adding More Details to Pictures and Stories

Writers tell the important parts of their story:
• Who you are with
• What you are doing
• Where you are
Writers Make Their Characters Talk!

Speech bubbles are used to show which character is talking and what they are saying.

When we are done we have just begun!

Add to our pictures.

Add to our words.

Reread our writing.

Start a new piece.

Make your own calendar by filling in the correct month and days.
Then, get it away from the monster by cutting it out and pasting it somewhere safe.
Where am I on a map?

Read Aloud: Me on the Map by Joan Sweeney
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jubD2EJlx4

After watching the read-aloud, talk with someone about maps. Here are some ideas to think about:

- How is a map different from a globe?
- When would we use a globe and when would we use a map?
- Why is part of the globe blue?

In the square below, draw a map of a room in your house. Pretend you are making the map for someone who needs to find an object in the room.
How can you find animals in the woods?

In this Mystery, students observe different animal behaviors and work to discover a pattern: all animals seek safety in order to survive. The activity, Gopher in a Hole, includes physical movement in which students pretend to be snails hiding in their shells, praying mantises scaring away predators, and gophers popping out of holes.

Create a pinball-like marble maze game using a paper plate, some basic craft supplies, and marbles. Tilt your plate to make it run!

Materials:
- Paper plate (the kind with high edges works best)
- Scissors
- Construction paper
- Tape
- Markers
- Marble
- Optional: Wikki Stix, chenille stems, and/or straws

Start with building some paper arches and taping them to your plate. You can create pockets, ramps, and even assign point values for different arches! Keep designing and testing until you have a paper plate marble run that is fun to play. Share it with your family!
