A couple positive cases

Transportation - there are issues but the National Guard will be coming to help with some of the Special Bus routes

Lisa Caten - question about COVID protocols

Kim Clements explains the three level of testing that Lowell has opted in to the three levels of testing- the test and stay testing allows for more students to stay instead of sending whole classrooms home.

Kim reviews school based budget and replenishing kids supplies

ESSER funds will pay for summer school for the next few years

After School program will run for 10 weeks for K-2 first starting in October

3-4 will target MCAS prep for 8 weeks

A final after school program will be mixed groupings

Tutors are starting tomorrow - we invested a lot of our budget into tutors

This allows to have more targeted instruction

Every classroom got a clear touch board - 100,000 of district money was invested
