

Good evening LHS Families,

This is Head of School Marianne Busted calling this Sunday evening, November 5th to share Lowell High updates for the week ahead. As a reminder, there will be no school on Election Day, Tuesday, November 7th.

There will also be no school on Friday, November 10th in recognition of Veteran's Day. I'm happy to share we will be holding our twenty first annual Salute to Veteran's on Thursday, November 9th at 9:45am in the auditorium, this will be televised in advisory classrooms for all LHS students and staff.

Our marking period one closes on Wednesday, November 8th, while marking period two begins on Thursday, November 9th. We are planning to distribute report cards in advisory on Tuesday, November 14th.

All seniors and families are invited to attend the Financial Aid Night presented by MEFA this Wednesday, November 8, at 6pm in the Little Theater at Lowell High School. You will have the opportunity to learn more about how to complete the FAFSA and the various forms of financial aid that are available. Please be sure to check out our updated website for all LHS news and information.

Thank you and have a good week.
