

Lowell Public Schools Summer Reading Program

Lowell Students Read

To all parents, families, and caregivers:

As partners in the education of our youth, I invite you to help your children extend their reading skills this summer.

Here's how you can help:

- Check that your child reads for 30 minutes daily, or read with them.
- Visit the Pollard Library and ensure your child has a book to read. If you do not already have a library card, you can sign up online for an e-library card!

Your child is expected to:

- Select and read titles from the attached list or any books they want. This list includes new titles and old favorites. Some authors write for younger and older readers, so please read the back of the book or check out Goodreads or Amazon for reviews and suggested age ranges.
- Return to school prepared to participate in a discussion about a book that they read.

Reading is fun! Play BINGO! Each child who returns a BINGO board will be awarded a certificate from their school.

Log the books your child reads either on paper OR online. Click here to enter each book. This will create a list at their school of all the books your child has read. Be sure to keep your log on paper or online, not both!

We look forward to hearing about how much you read this summer!

Thank you,

Dr. Oneida Fox Royce
Assistant Superintendent

My Summer Reading Plan

Books/Authors I want to read:

Where will I get books?

☐

Borrow from the library

☐

Read Online

☐

Trade books with friends

☐

Buy at a bookstore

☐

Buy Online

Other _____

Where will I read?

☐

In my bedroom

☐

In the living room

☐

Outside

☐

In my car

☐

At the beach

☐

Other _____

Log all of the books that you read. If you read one book, write it down. If you read 100, write them down. You can write them here. If you run out of room, add another piece of paper.

OR

Looking for an even easier way to log your books? Do it online. Click here to enter your book titles online. Your school will keep a list of all the books that you read. Remember, you only need to log your books on paper or online. NOT BOTH.

Happy Summer Reading!

Summer Reading BINGO

Fill up your sheet with summer reading fun and see if you can hit BINGO before school is back in session.

Read a poem from a book of poetry. Then practice writing your own!	Go camping under the stars (or in a living room pillow fort) and read your favorite spooky story. Remember to bring a flashlight! 	Research a topic that interests you and read an article about it -- parents, feel free to lend a hand!	Listen to an audio book on your next summer road trip.	Choose a book from the Pollard Summer Reading List and give it a read!
Read aloud to a younger sibling or relative!	Explore a joke book and then try a joke out on your family and friends.	From Pete the Cat to Clifford, try reading to your furry friend -- stuffed animals work too! 	Swap! Exchange favorite summer reads with your bestie!	Judge a book by its cover and see if you like the story inside!
Who's hungry? Read a recipe then make a meal! 	Read a book published the year you were born!	FREE 	Read a book your parents read as kids. Bonus if you read it together!	Read a book that's been turned into a movie then have a screening after you've finished!
Pick up a book with over 150 pages (you don't have to finish it!).	Love family game night? Read board game directions then get playing.	Start a new series!	School's out! Find a book with Summer in the title and give it a read. 	Read a book you rented from the public library.
Write a story then read it aloud to your parents. 	Read outside in the summer sun. 	Read a book by an author you've never read before.	Read non-fiction (a biography, memoir, article, newspaper, etc.).	Reread a favorite picture book.

Book Talks

Talking about books is a way to spark your classmates' and teachers' interest and introduce them to new texts that they might otherwise miss. Think of a book talk as a brief commercial for your book. Jot down a few notes to remind you of the essential points you want to make. A book talk will take only a few minutes. You might want to think about the following things when deciding what to talk about in your Book Talk.

You will be responsible to talk about one of the books you've read during the summer with your classmates when you return to school.

Talk about the title and the author. (What would be another good title for this text? Explain.)

Show the cover and some of the illustrations. (What information does the reader get?)

Read aloud the lead or a particularly interesting or exciting part of the text. (Explain author's craft in this part of the text. Explain how this part of the text affects the reader's understanding.)

Connect the book to your life or the lives of students in general. (What did you learn about life or yourself from this book?)

Pose questions. (If you could ask the author one question, what would it be and why?)

Tell about the plot or about one character. (What is one character's main problem in the story? How did that character resolve his/her problem?)

Share your own response to the book. (Would you recommend the book? Explain why or why not.)

How to Give a Book Talk

(adapted from Guiding Readers and Writers , Fountas & Pinnell, 2001)

- ❖ Look at everyone in your group or class.
- ❖ Speak loudly so all can hear.
- ❖ Talk about the characters, the problem in the story, or some interesting information.
- ❖ Read a small part of the book to interest the readers.
- ❖ Create interest in other readers.

Summer reading is easy with...

On Sora you'll find all the suggested books and many more - both ebooks and audiobooks!
