Who We Are...

The UMass Lowell String Project is a community music initiative that meets every Tuesday and Thursday at UMass Lowell. We welcome students from all over the Merrimack Valley, and provide instruction in violin, viola, and cello. We have helped countless students in our 15+ year history, from complete beginners to seasoned musicians. Instruments can be rented through us, or you can bring your own! Come be a part of the String Project family!
