

Good evening LHS family,

Welcome back from the weekend, at least we had some intermittent sun and Monday should be the pick of the week for beautiful spring weather! Thanks to everyone who came out last Monday evening for the Forum on Education, it was very informative and helpful to more fully understand the needs for appropriate school funding in Lowell and across the state. Thanks to the Brockton Superintendent and CFO for hosting along with Superintendent Durkin and her team.

Our students were the stars of the evening at the Project Learn Fundraising Event at Cross Point Towers Wednesday evening. Thanks to our AFJROTC students for welcoming everyone and our intern students who shared their learning experiences on the stage along with Marty Meehan and Lori Trahan. It was a great LHS night!

Congratulations and Bright Stars

Please join me in sending a big congratulations to Dr. Deanna Stanford on achieving her degree!

Tenacity Challenge Competition

The Tenacity Challenge Competition took place in Bedford High School on Saturday, April 27th 2019.

Three teams represented Lowell High School: “A Tribe Called Outkast”, “Los Apasionados” and “The Justice League”.

The Teams were led and advised by Ms. Yvette Cheeks, Ms. Delaney Carr, Mr. Rafael Quiles and Dr. María Vejar.

“A Tribe Called Outkast won 2nd place in the history competition and placed 5th place overall. “The Justice League” placed 2nd in the poster and won 2nd place overall in the competition. Both teams received scholarships.

Thank you to Mr. Jussaume, Mr. Delossa, Mrs. Downey, our librarian, Mr. Heitzman and Mr. Thornton for supporting our students. Thank you to all their teachers whose teaching and knowledge shine through in the performance of our students.

Spring break - Central Europe trip

Suzanne Riley, with students and chaperones explored and learned about the history and culture of the many cities they visited, ie. Berlin and Dresden, Germany, Prague, Czech Republic, Krakow and Nova Huta, Poland. Looks like our students had an outstanding learning opportunity!

South Asian Club hosted annual International Fashion Show

On Wednesday, April 24th the South Asian Club held it's yearly "International Fashion Show" in the Little Theater. We had fashions from different countries, numerous performers from different backgrounds performing songs and dances all the way from India, France, Korea, Poland, the U.S. and other countries. We also had some ethnic food. Special thanks to: Club Advisor - Rafael Quiles, Dr. Clark and the Show Choir students who helped made this possible.

Please join me in wishing our cadets good luck in Daytona Beach at The 2019 Service Drill National Competition, they will be gone from May 1- May 7!

Looking Ahead!
