

Once I was Five Years Old

Verse 1

Once I was five years old, my parents told me

It's time to go to school, but
don't you worry

Once I was five years old

It was a big, big world, but we thought we were bigger

When we were small in Kindergarten, we were learning quicker

Crazy to think how big we've grown when we look in the mirror.

And now we're leaving time to go I guess I'll see you later

Verse 2

Once I was seven years old,
my friends told me

Come play a game with us,
and don't you worry

Once I was seven years old.

My friends are always there, we'll stick up for each other.

No matter where we go we'll always have memories together.

And even if we have to say goodbye come September.

We'll have the good times at the Washington, to remember.

Verse 3

Once I was ten years old, my teachers told me

You can do this, try your best
and don't you worry.

Once I was ten years old.

Now we are graduating. It's scary and exciting but you made us ready for it - so don't you worry.

Now we are graduating.

Verse 4

Once I was five years old, my parents told me

It's time to go to school, but
don't you worry.

There you'll make memories.

Once I was five years old.
