

Survival!

Good News: BSAC now has an imaginary luxury boat. We have taken a trip on to the high seas.

Bad News: We somehow lost our engine and are stranded. Luckily, we managed to paddle to the closest piece of land...but it's a deserted island. We have some supplies that we can take on to the island, but we can only carry a limited amount.

Your task: Identify the 15 items on this list that you would take with you. Then rank the items you chose by importance/priority. You have 10 minutes to discuss with your group.

- Socks
- Silk pajamas
- Flint
- Plastic water bottle
- Ipod
- Your favorite stuffed animal
- Cell phone
- First aid kit
- Flare gun
- Machete
- Fictional novel
- Eating utensils (spoon, knife, fork)
- Toilet paper
- Underwear
- Paper clips
- Magical self-filling, never-ending coffee/tea mug
- Science textbook
- Bike
- Vitamins
- Life jacket
- 1 box of Goldfish crackers
- Blanket
- Swiss army knife
- Flashlight
- Tent

Debrief questions:

1. How did you decide on what you needed?
2. Did you agree with everyone on everything?
3. How did you resolve conflicts when making decisions?
